Policy

Conestogo Mechanical Inc. is committed to excellence in serving all customers including people with disabilities. We will ensure that our employees are trained and familiar with various assistive devices that may be used by customers with disabilities while accessing our goods or services and will communicate with people with disabilities in ways that take into account their disability.

Safety Policy Overview

Guidelines for Serving Customers with Disabilities

Deaf, Oral Deaf, Deafened, Hard of Hearing

- Attract the customer's attention before speaking.
- Don't shout
- Make sure you are in a well-lit area where your customer can see your face
- If the person uses a hearing aid, reduce background noise or move to a quieter area

Deafblind (with intervenor)

- Speak directly to your customer, not to the intervenor
- Identify yourself to the intervenor when you approach you customer who is deafblind
- A customer who is deafblind is likely to explain to you how to communicate with them

Vision Loss

- Don't assume the customer can't see you
- Identify yourself when you approach your customer and speak directly to him or her
- Offer your elbow to guide the person
- Identify landmarks or other details to orient your customer to the environment
- Don't leave your customer in the middle of the room

Intellectual/Developmental Disabilities

- Don't assume what a person can or cannot do
- Use plain language
- Make sure your customer understands what you have said. Be direct and ask "Do you understand this?"
- Provide one piece of information at a time.
- You may want to ask if the information needs to be repeated

Learning Disabilities

- Take some time. People may take a little longer to process, understand respond
- Provide information in way that works for your customer.

Mental Health Disabilities

- Be confident and reassuring.
- Listen carefully and focus on meeting the customers needs
- If the person appears to be in a crisis, ask them to tell you the best way to help

Physical or Disabilities affecting Mobility

- Ask before your help. People with disabilities often have their own ways of doing things
- Respect your customers space
- Don't move items, such as canes and walkers out of the person's reach

Speech or Language Impairments

- Don't assume that because a person has this disability, they also have another
- Give your customer whatever time they need to get their point across
- Ask questions that can be answered "yes" or "no", if possible
- Don't interrupt or finish your customer's sentences. Wait for them to finish.
